

February 24th Special Event

Black History Month

Minor Changes to the Key System

- 88 keys required for induction

- ❖ Providing Musical Tutoring - 10 keys per session
- ❖ Musical Unity Video Submissions - 10 keys per video

Community Service (Member) INCLUDES VIRTUAL COMMUNITY SERVICE

- ❖ Outside Performances (Chamber/mall) - 10 keys
- ❖ Nursing Homes / Church - 10 keys an hour
- ❖ Ushering at Events (Anti-Prom/Concerts) - 4 keys
- ❖ Providing Musical Tutoring - 10 keys per session
- ❖ Musical Unity Video Submissions - 10 keys per video

Musical Enrichment (Audience) INCLUDES VIRTUAL MUSICAL ENRICHMENT

- ❖ Attending outside performances (concerts/musical/Broadway) - 10 keys
- ❖ Attending any school production/concert - 10 keys
- ❖ Receiving private lessons - 5 keys per hour

- Community Service, Musical Enrichment, and Tri-M Events categories include in-person AND virtual events.
- Musical Unity and Mozart's Tutoring keys added to system.

Upcoming Events

Joseph Bologne

- Renowned 18th century composer, violinist, and conductor.
- Conducted a leading parisian symphony orchestra, Concert des Amateurs
- Composed a variety of works including those for orchestra, string quartet, and opera
- Also a colonel in the French Revolution and a champion fencer

Informally known as the “Black Mozart”

Louis Armstrong

- born in New Orleans.
- very famous Trumpeter and Vocalist
- Founding father of jazz
- He composed many songs and recorded top hits for five decades that are still played.

The Louis Armstrong Home Museum is dedicated to honoring and preserving the home of Louis and his wife Lucille.

Aretha Franklin

- Born in 1942 in Memphis, TN but moved to Detroit, MI at age 2
- Gifted singer, songwriter, actress, and pianist
- Began singing as a child at the New Bethel Baptist Church where her father was a minister
- Civil rights activist
- Winner of 25 Grammys
- Dubbed “Queen of Soul”
- Sang at three presidential inaugurations

Wynton Marsalis Video

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JRL8kevsyX0&feature=youtu.be>

Thank you!